THE COLLOQUIUM

On Friday evening, April 17, commencing at 7:00 o'clock p.m., and, Saturday, April 18, 2015, at 9:00 o'clock a.m., the Blessed Margaret of Castello Chapter of the Lay Dominicans in Idaho is holding a Colloquium on the Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church, in the Donoghue Hall at St. Mark's Catholic Church, 7960 Northview Street, Boise, ID 83704.

Speakers and Lay Dominicans, along with attendees to the Colloquium, will explore the essential principles of the Church's social mission, the oft-abused concept of social justice, and what it truly means in the modern world. Join us, as we explore the Holy Bible, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the documents of Vatican II, and the major modern social encyclicals about the Church's social mission.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Colloquium is to understand the Church's Social mission and teaching and its key principles. For many, it is often a befuddling subject, giving excuse to faithful Catholics to ignore it, yet there is a call on each of us to understand it in truth and to live the social mission of the Church in our lives. To implement the Church's social mission rightly and fruitfully in the modern world, it must serve the Truth.

The Colloquium will help each of us to live the Gospel more fully in the modern world.

Some questions to review: What is the Church's social mission? The State's and Families' role? Personal responsibility? The role of reason and natural law?

What is the origin of human rights; are these rights derived from the state? How does the U.S.A. Declaration of Independence and its Constitution promote the social mission of the Catholic Church?

How can our own lives be opened to live more fully the life of Christ calls us to in Matthew 25?

IDAHO'S LAY DOMINICANS

The Idaho Lay Dominicans, also known as the Blessed Margaret of Castello Chapter, are a group of lay Catholics that meet at 10:30 a.m. on the 3rd Saturday of each month at St. Mark's Catholic Church in Boise, Idaho.

The Dominicans in Idaho are part of the world-wide lay Order of St. Dominic—who nearly 800 years ago reawakened the world to the Lord's mission and charism. St. Dominic's mission is very much alive in the new Evangelization of the 21st Century.

The Lay Dominicans invite you to attend and participate in their prayers and study. Just show up; or for more information, call 208.375.2532 or check our website at:
